Director Irene Taylor Brodsky turns the camera on her deaf parents and her 11-year-old deaf son, Jonas, who has cochlear implants and is discovering a profound world of hearing - and music. As Jonas learns the first movement of Beethoven's iconic sonata on the piano, his grandparents, deaf for nearly 80 years, watch with deepening awe what time and technology have bestowed on their grandson.

A special Q & A session with deaf staff from the CCDHH immediately following the film.
An Interpreter will be provided.*
