CHSC is delighted to announce a Westside location for our Adult Communication Group. The Adult Communication Group has been established to help stroke patients who, after completing traditional, individual or group therapy, found themselves simply going home and having minimal contact with others. The group provides a support system that is geared toward communication, and is composed of individuals from a variety of living environments who have communication disorders resulting from stroke, head injury or diseases such as Alzheimer's or Parkinson's.

CHSC's Adult Communication Group is offered at no cost. Donations accepted.

To register for the group, or for more information, please contact Tracy Biller, Speech-Language Pathologist and group facilitator, at 216-325-7544, or tbiller@chsc.org
